

CSLS Sessions at Canadian Economics Association Conference May 31- June 1, 2024 Toronto Metropolitan University, Toronto, Ontario

CSLS Paper Session Saturday, June 1 8:30-10:00

“Explaining Key Developments in Productivity Trends”

Organizer: Andrew Sharpe (CSLS)

Chair: Michelle Alexopoulos (University of Toronto)

Papers: “What is the Contribution of Robots to Productivity and Growth in Advanced Economies?” Gilbert Cette (NEOMA), Vincenzo Spiezia (OECD) and Claudia Nobile (Paris School of Economics)
Presentation here

“How Has the Recent Surge in Population Growth in Canada Affected Productivity?” Tim Sargent (Centre for the Study of Living Standards) and Ruth-Lourdemie Duclos (University of Ottawa)
Presentation here

“What Explains the Fall in Productivity in the Transport Sector in Canada Since 2017?” Andrew Sharpe (Centre for the Study of Living Standards)
Presentation here

Discussants’ Joel Blit (University of Waterloo)
Lars Osberg (Dalhousie University)
Pedro Antunes (Conference Board of Canada)

CSLS-PEF Panel Session

“Explaining Declining Productivity in Canada.”

Organizers: Andrew Sharpe (CSLS) and Ian Hudson (University of Manitoba)

Chair; Jim Stanford (Centre for Future Work)

Panelists: Andrew Sharpe (Centre for the Study of Living Standards)
Presentation here
Wulong Gu (Statistics Canada)
Presentation here
DT Cochrane (Canadian Labour Congress)
Angella MacEwan (Canadian Union of Public Employees)